Headline:
A warm weekend with sunny spells.

Today:
Early mist and fog will lift to low cloud, which will thin and break to give some bright or sunny spells by the afternoon. Largely dry, but chance of the odd light shower. Warm in the sunshine, with light winds. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry and mostly cloudy overnight, with some clear spells. Some low cloud, mist and fog patches may form in places by dawn. Another mild night for many. Light winds. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Sunday:
Early low cloud, mist and fog soon lifting to give way to bright or warm sunny spells for many. However, rain, locally heavy and strong winds will arrive overnight. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Early rain clearing to leave sunshine and scattered showers on Monday. Further showers on Tuesday, heavy and possibly thundery. Drier and brighter Wednesday. Feeling much cooler and fresher. Windy too.
